

Principals' Training Center

PTCnet Survey Summary

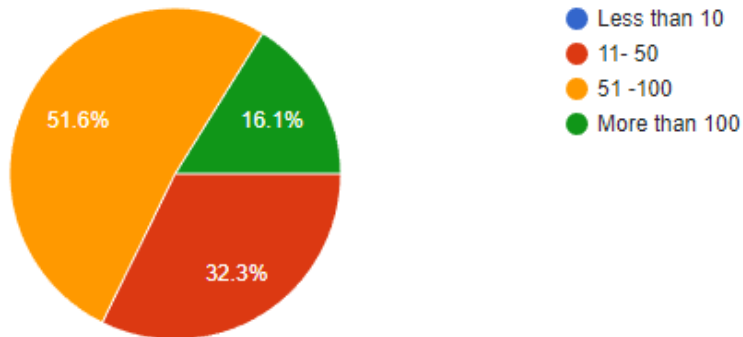

TOPIC:	IB DP Programs in International Schools
QUERY:	Thank you to those who responding to this survey about IB DP programs in International Schools. The results are most interesting.
QUERY SUBMITTED AND COLLATED BY:	James Mattiace
TOTAL NUMBER OF RESPONSES:	31
Date conducted	9-13-17

Responses:

See below.

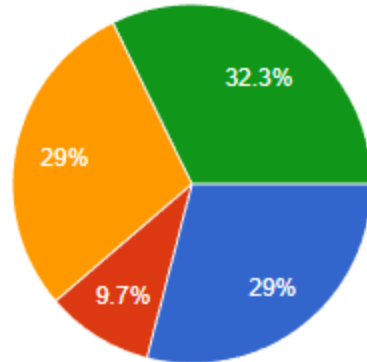

Approximate number of Diploma Candidates

31 responses

Is your IB Coordinator Full time?

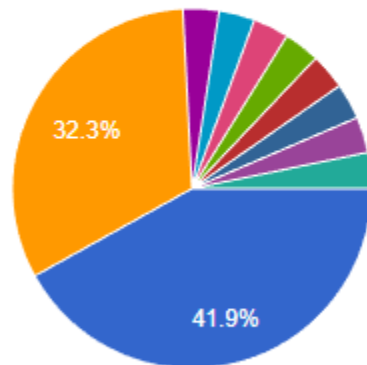

31 responses

- Yes
- Yes, but teaches an IB Core or TOK or non Group subject
- Considered full time, but picks up a class
- No

Do you allow Non - IB Diploma students to take IB classes?

31 responses

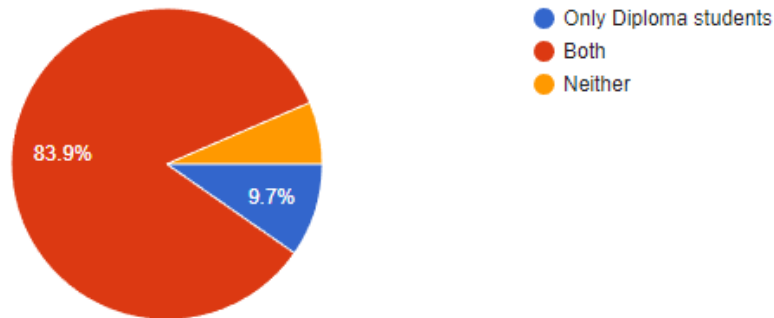

- Yes, for certificate
- Yes, but only SL classes
- Yes, as certificate or non-certificate
- Only with a waiver or other parental...
- Entire grade does IB
- all of our students do dp or certificat...
- All of our students take the DP Clas...
- all our students are full diploma with...

▲ 1/2 ▼

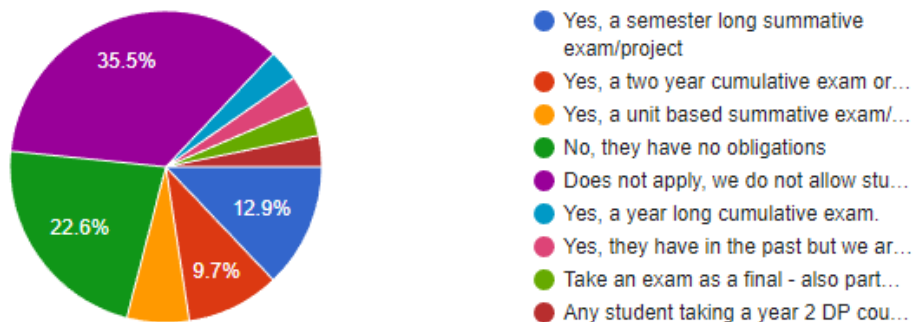

Do you allow IB Diploma and Non-IB Diploma students to schedule in free blocks/study blocks?

31 responses

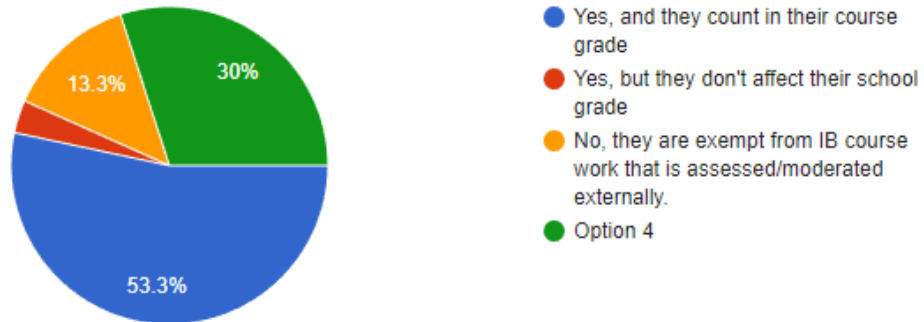

Do Non-IB Diploma/non-certificate students in IB courses have to take an exam in May if they are not sitting the IB exam?

31 responses

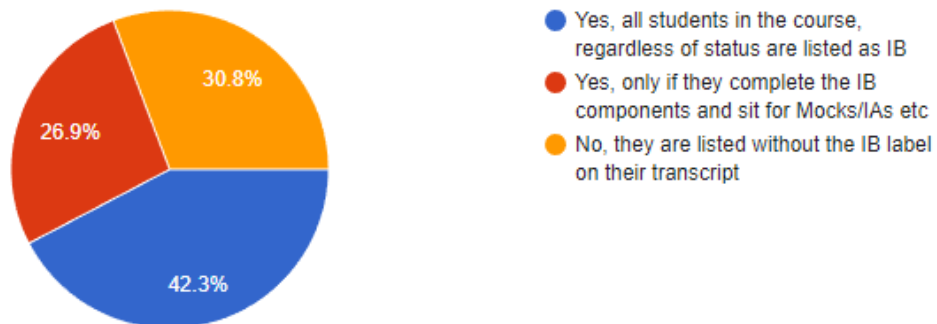

Do non IBDP /non certificate students in IB courses have to complete IAs/IOCs etc?

30 responses

Are non IBDP /non certificate students in IB courses allowed to list those courses as IB on their transcripts?

26 responses

When are your Mock Exams and who sits them?

- Late February / Early March, All students sitting in IBDP courses
- No official mocks
- March. All students in that particular course.
- Mid-March. All students who sit IB exams (so full IB Diploma candidates and IB course candidate for the relevant subjects)
- March
- February, everybody
- early Semester II; if you are enrolled in an IB course, then you fulfill all the requirements of the IB course (mocks, IAs, IOCs)
- jan and march - all sit both for all courses they are enrolled in
- Mid-late March. All students intending to complete the external exam in May.
- March. All students in IB Courses.
- Mocks usually occurs in early March. DP and IB Courses candidates sit the mocks.
- First week of March. All students enrolled in an IBDP Course
- early March - all sit them
- March. All grade 12 students.
- Our students sit for the November session and our mocks are during the end of August and the beginning of September
- Late January/early February; all students take an exam
- January and all
- December and March of 12th grade
- All sit in January or D2
- January - All G12 student
- March 5-9 2018. All students seeking IB credit sit the exams
- March 7, five days with a "Group 6 Studio Work Day" as day six of mocks. All students sit the exams.
- March. All students sit them, we have the students who are not taking the exam take a final exam in May and so the mock helps them.
- Mock exams are in late February each during our annual Week Without Walls. Any student in a year 2 DP course will take the mock exam for that subject. Mock exams count as semester 2 final exams.
- February - all students.
- May of 1st year IBDP and Jan of 2nd year
- May - grade 11 - March - grade 12
- February and March ; all students in those classes.
- March 4-13, 2018
- March - all students
- Early April; any student taking IB Y2 courses.